

Brothers In Arms

The Aviation Theory Centre has been selected by the Australian Defence Force to supply a library of reference manuals for trainee aircrew. The Professional ADF Aviators' Reference Manual (PAARM) will be issued to all trainees and instructors for the purpose of maintaining standards and ensuring standardisation in aviation instruction.

This contract demonstrates that the Aviation Theory Centre is capable of meeting and exceeding world's best practice and that the Australian Defence Force, itself a world leader in professionalism, recognises our capability.
